Contents

Acknowledgements IX
Preface by Bryan S. Turner XIII

Introduction 1

Part I

Chapter 1
The Prior Conditions of Possibility 11
Chapter 2
Proximate Affinities 19
Chapter 3
Practical Engagement 49
Chapter 4
Changing Exegetical Frameworks 63
Chapter 5
Towards Application 83
Chapter 6
Full Circle 99
Chapter 7
Excursus: Husserl and Bourdieu 105

Part II

Section 1*:* Exegesis, Understanding and Dissemination 113
Chapter 1
Introduction to "Statistics and Sociology" 119
Chapter 2
Bourdieu and Social Science Journalism 127
Chapter 3
The Shield of Pascal 137
Chapter 4
Sociology and Philosophy in the Work of Pierre Bourdieu, 1965–75 149

Chapter 5
The Responsibility of the Ethnographer: An Introduction to Pierre Bourdieu on "Colonialism and Ethnography" 179
Chapter 6
Kant, Cassirer and Bourdieu 185

Section 2: Trans-national Transfer 197

Chapter 7
Trans-national Learning in the Field of History 201
Chapter 8
The International Transmission of Ideas: Pierre Bourdieu in Theory and Practice 211
Chapter 9
Bourdieu's Philosophy of Social Science and the Cross-cultural Transfer of Social Science Concepts 223
Chapter 10
Finding 'Reasons for Maxims': Social Science and International Relations 233

Section 3: Educational Application 251

Chapter 11
Individual Needs, Individualism and Independent Study: The Uses and Abuses of Structural Analysis 259
Chapter 12
Business and Management Education and the Rise of Entrepreneurial Society in England, 1945–1992 297
Chapter 13
Business Studies: The Market of Institutions and the Labour Market—An English Case Study 323
Chapter 14
The Practical Importance of Bourdieu's Analyses of Higher Education 337
Chapter 15
Enterprise Learning Programme: Evaluation Report II 355
Chapter 16
Paper for the Second Co-ordinating Meeting of the ESRC Research Programme on the Learning Society: Triangulation within the Programme 387
Chapter 17
Review of "Academic Discourse" 395
Chapter 18
The Transcultural Transferability of Bourdieu's Sociology of Education 403

Section 4: Socio-cultural Applications 423

Chapter 19
Reflections on Citizenship and Nationhood From Brubaker's Account on France and Germany 429

Chapter 20
Bourdieu on Language and Linguistics: A Response to R. Hasan's "The Disempowerment Game: Bourdieu on Language in Literacy" 449

Chapter 21
The English Intellectual Field in the 1790s and the Creative Project of Samuel Taylor Coleridge: An Application of Bourdieu's Cultural Analysis 467

Chapter 22
The Origins, Early Development and Status of Bourdieu's Concept of 'Cultural Capital' 483

Section 5: Epistemology 503

Chapter 23
The Need for an Epistemological 'Break' 507

Chapter 24
Bernard, Bachelard, and Bourdieu: An Epistemological Tradition and its Implications for Analysis in the Arts and Social Sciences 541

Chapter 25
Durkheim Through the Eyes of Bourdieu 557

Selected Bibliography of Works by Derek Robbins 577

Bibliography of Works by Pierre Bourdieu and Collaborators 587

Index 595